Complainants and individuals who cooperate in an external complaint of discrimination investigation or other proceeding conducted by Bartholomew County have certain rights and protections.

The following is a brief explanation of these rights and protections.

- A recipient of federal funds cannot force an individual to be represented by its lawyer. A recipient cannot intimidate, threaten or discriminate against any individual who refuses to tell the recipient what occurred during an interview with Bartholomew County. An individual has the right to be represented during an interview with Bartholomew County. The representative can be the recipient's lawyer, the individual's private lawyer or any other person the individual has authorized to be present.
- The laws and regulations that govern Bartholomew County's compliance and enforcement authority provide that no recipient or other person shall intimidate, threaten, coerce, or discriminate against any individual because he or she has filed a complaint, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in a review, investigation or other proceeding conducted under Bartholomew County's jurisdiction or has asserted rights protected by any statutes, regulations or directives Bartholomew County enforces.
- Bartholomew County is required to investigate complaints of discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, and in some instances religion against recipients of federal financial assistance. - Bartholomew County will use personal information such as an individual's telephone number or address, only for the specific purpose for which it was submitted, that is, for authorized civil rights compliance and enforcement activities.

- Except in the instances defined in the United States Department of Transportation regulations at 49 CFR 10 and Indiana Code §5-14-3-4, Bartholomew County will not release information to any other agency or individual unless the person who supplied the information submits a written consent.
